Lulu Mwangi Mupfumbu - Conductor

Lulu Mwangi Mupfumbu is an assistant professor of music at the University of Maryland, Baltimore County, where she conducts the Camerata Chamber Choir and teaches music education and conducting courses. She holds a Master's in Conducting from Ohio State University and a Bachelor's in Music Education from Atlantic Union College. Her passion lies in blending excellence in music education and performance with service to humanity. Beyond the classroom, she is active as a guest conductor, clinician, adjudicator, presenter, singer, and author, both locally and internationally. An award-winning conductor, her ensembles have performed on five continents, received numerous accolades including 5 medals at the World Choir Games, and been featured at ACDA regional and national conventions. Her groups have also performed at prestigious venues including the Kennedy Center, Lincoln Center, and The White House. Prof. Mwangi Mupfumbu is dedicated to instilling a deep love for the arts in her students and encouraging them to use their talents to serve others. She's married to Tanyaradzwa Mupfumbu and together they have two children; Nakai and Itai.

Gunner Chancey - Accompanist

Gunner Chancey is the Director of Music Ministries at Asbury United Methodist Church in Salisbury, MD. In this role, he oversees a comprehensive music program. Mr. Chancey directs both the Chancel Choir and Chancel Bells. Additionally, he serves as Organist and Accompanist for Sunday Services. Mr. Chancey has a true passion for conducting, while also enjoying accompanying singers and various choral groups. His professional experience includes accompanying honor choirs and chamber choirs throughout Georgia and the Eastern Shore of Maryland. As a liturgical musician, Mr. Chancey specializes in improvisation - particularly on hymns of the church, and is known to improvise on self-composed themes as well. Mr. Chancey holds a Bachelor of Music degree in Piano from Valdosta State University in Valdosta, Georgia. He also received a Master of Music degree in Choral Conducting from Mercer University in Macon, Georgia. In his free time, Mr. Chancey enjoys traveling to see new places and being out in nature.
