Maryland All State Concert 2026 • www.mdmea.org

Ryan Beeken is Director of Choral Activities and Associate Director for the School of Music at Wichita State University, where he conducts the Concert Chorale and Madrigal Singers, teaches choral conducting and literature, and oversees the choral area. He holds degrees in Vocal Performance and Music Education from Drake University and earned both his Master of Music and Doctor of Musical Arts in Choral Conducting from Michigan State University. His choirs have been featured at state, regional, and national conferences of the American Choral Directors Association (ACDA) and NAFME. A sought-after conductor, clinician, and adjudicator, he has led nearly one hundred All-State and Honor Choirs across twenty-two states and internationally in the Czech Republic, Austria, Ireland, Italy, Oman, Estonia, and Sweden. He has also presented at symposia throughout the U.S. and in Ljubljana, Slovenia. Before joining Wichita State, Beeken was Director of Choral Studies at Indiana University of Pennsylvania and taught at Michigan State University. He also directed the Drake Chorale at Drake University. Earlier in his career, he taught elementary through high school music for sixteen years, most recently in Waukee, Iowa, where he led a nationally recognized program of 300 across twelve ensembles.

Accompanist, Jeffrey Winfield

Jeffrey Winfield is the Supervisor of Fine Arts for Harford County Public Schools. Prior to supervision, he was the proud choral director at Edgewood High School for 25 years. His graduate degree was earned from Florida State University and his undergraduate from Towson University. His most enjoyable time of the year is when he is the pianist for the MD All State Senior Mixed Chorus where he has the pleasure of collaborating with amazing student musicians from all over Maryland!

MMEA would like to thank the Maryland Choral Educators Association (MCEA) and the board, staff, and volunteers for making this event possible!
