MMEA would like to thank the Maryland Choral Educators Association and the volunteer chaperones for making this event possible.

Sherlee Glomb is the choral director at South County Middle School in Fairfax County. She received her Master of Music Education degree from Florida State University and received a Bachelors of Music degree from James Madison University. Mrs. Glomb has over twenty years of public school teaching experience at every level throughout Fairfax County, Loudoun County, Prince William County and Orange County in Winter Park, Florida. Mrs. Glomb has given conference presentations at in Florida and for ACDA in Pennsylvania and her groups have performed twice now at Virginia’s state conference. Mrs. Glomb has held district chair positions in Fairfax County and served as a clinician for middle and high school honor choirs, as well as a festival adjudicator, throughout the state of Florida, Virginia, and Maryland. She is currently the Soprano/Alto Repertoire and Resource Chair for Virginia ACDA. She is a member of NAFME, VMEA, ACDA and SAI.

Beverly Gandolfo taught choral music in Carroll County Public Schools for 38 years, retiring in 2015. Currently, she holds adjunct music faculty positions at Stevenson University, Towson University and the Peabody Institute. She has been involved in community and professional theatre throughout her career. Ms. Gandolfo has accompanied the Maryland All-State Junior Chorus for several years, and remains in demand as a choral clinician, adjudicator, and collaborative pianist.
